“ Judy, so sorry to see this in Spartanburg Herald today. Both of you and Jessica have been friends for many years even though we didn't see each other a lot. Great guy and if he suffered for a while, I know he is at peace! Let me know if you need anything. Rv

“ Jessica,
I am so sorry about the passing of your father. I don't know if you will remember, but I was your preschool teacher at Southern Shops Daycare. Your father thought the world of you. I still remember the two of you singing "Puff The Magic Dragon" at our spring program. My brother, Bobby Gilbert, will be officiating your father's service on Tuesday. Again, I am truly sorry for your loss.
Love,
Miss Nancy
