

David Andrew Gedenberg

March 18, 1973 - February 15, 2023

On the morning of February 15, 2023, David Andrew Gedenberg, 49, of Taylors, South Carolina, passed away peacefully at home from a glioblastoma brain tumor. He was born in Fitchburg, Massachusetts on March 18, 1973, and lived in New Ipswich, New Hampshire until moving to Taylors, South Carolina in 2003.

After many years of working in the concrete construction field, he pursued one of his favorite hobbies, auto restoration as a fulltime career. He could be found at most car shows around town. He also enjoyed playing hockey in his free time with his son, Kent.

Dave's Christian faith was an essential part of his life. He was a member of Grace Apostolic Lutheran Church of Campobello, South Carolina. He was a faithful man who loved the Lord, his family, church, and community.

Dave was married to the love of his life, Tammy Holombo Gedenberg. They have four wonderful children, Kent, Mattea, Sienna, and Karigan all of Taylors, South Carolina.

Dave is survived by his wife, Tammy and their four children; his parents, Leonard and Ruth Gedenberg; and siblings, Dan (Jodie) Gedenberg of Clearwater, Florida, Josh (Emily) Gedenberg of La Center, Washington, Mary (Claus) Nyblom of Greer, South Carolina, Rachel (Tim) Anderson of Travelers Rest, South Carolina, Anna Gedenberg of Greer, South Carolina, Esther (Curtis) Moore of Iman, South Carolina, and Luke (Bethany) Gedenberg of Campobello, South Carolina; his best friend, Nick and Heidi Somero and family; and his sweet dog, Daisy.

He is preceded in death by his grandparents, father-in-law, Curt Holombo, and nephew, Mike Nyblom.

His celebration of life will be held 2:30 p.m. Monday, February 20, 2023, at Eastside Apostolic Lutheran Church, at 2200 Mays Bridge Road, Greer, conducted by Pastor Steve Anderson and Pastor Dan Hoard. Burial will follow in Mountain View Cemetery.

Visitation will be held 12:00-2:00 p.m. Monday at the church.

The family is at the home.

“Dave was one of our Midway customers. When he came in it was always a pleasure to wait on him. We watched him as he became weaker in his walk but he always had a sweet sweet spirit. Our prayers and thoughts are with the family. What a blessing he was. Thankful that we got to know him.”

“David worked for me at Red Door Realty for a while. He was always so pleasant and had a great sense of humor. He was a great Realtor that consider his clients best interest above his own. A great mechanic. My husband only wanted David to work on his cars. He was a man of many talents. I know he is enjoying heaven and seeing his Jesus. Praying for all the family and trusting God to embrace each one with His love and peace.”

“ I’m so sorry to hear of Dave’s passing. We played many seasons together for the Greenville D and C league Whalers - not only a true competitor but a gentleman. I remember once he cut his lip and I told him he needed stitches. He said “naw, just need some glue”. Sure enough he patched himself up with instant glue and was no worse for wear. We shared many stories in the dressing room and he always had good advice on cars, hockey and life. I don’t need to tell you that he was a great man. My family’s prayers are with all of you as you navigate life without him.
