But what a reunion in heaven we will all have. David is with Jesus, how wonderful for him. I bet he has already seen his Dad and his sister and others. I am praying for you and all the family and for his precious children. Love you. Gordon and Sally

“ I knew David through my friend Matthew Herman. They were neighbors. David was very nice and friendly to me and acted as if he knew me for along time. He was welcoming and inviting. He always said hello and invited me over to his house. I can remember the last time I talked to David about a month ago and we all sat out back by his pool. I got up to leave and he said to come back and bring my little girl swimming and I knew he meant it. He also said the next time he would be off work and to come back and hang out. Although I didn't know him very well he treated me as a friend that he had known for along time. It is sad. The one thing that I do know is he was crazy about his kids and talked about them every time I had ever talked to him. He was a proud father.
