“ I am honored to of had David as a mentor and friend while working at Woven. The knowledge he shared with me made me enthusiastic about the work we do and pushed me to learn in his footsteps. David's passion to his work and devotion to others is something I have always admired and strive to emulate, not only to be a better engineer, but to be a better person for the people around me. David will never be forgotten, and he will be dearly missed.

“ It was an honor and privilege to work with David. His knowledge, expertise, and positive attitude will be greatly missed. He never missed an opportunity to talk about his grandchildren and could always be relied upon to step in and help a colleague with a difficult question. My thoughts are with your family, and David will be fondly remembered by everyone here at Woven.
