“ As everyday, you will continue to always be in my heart.

Even though our later lives were not as our earlier lives together, you gave me many wonderful childhood memories as a little girl. I will hold on to those special times in my thoughts and mind: our summers and weekends at School Section, you patiently teaching me to fish, swim and water ski (and all your saves when you swam out to the middle of the lake to help me try again), bonfires at the lake, lots of family holidays, where both sides of yours and moms's families were so intertwined and part of everyday, that grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins and close family friends were commonplace in our home on Canal St. It was good times, happy times then. In hindsight, those years were some of my happiest. You were a good father to me, but kids rarely have this insight when they are kids =)

Growing up, the life changes we faced and the wayward ways of being a teenager, they were difficult times for us, but as I've grown into an adult and have experienced being a parent myself, I have come to understand many things as an adult that I did not as a kid.

I am thankful that we were able to have our talk that one day, that we finally had our chance before it was to late, to say everything we'd felt all the years that got away from us. I always missed you and I know that my life was made better for you being in it. I love you dad.

*Your daughter,
Jenny LaLonde*

“ Dear Laci and Andy,
I feel very deeply for you in your loss. Take care of yourselves.
I only had the privilege of meeting David a few times. He was a very kind man and we had some wonderful conversations. He especially loved to talk about his experiences during business trips to Sweden and, yes, it was with a sense of humor.

“ Dave, my dear bother my friend, I will always remember you for your influence, your presence, sense humor, but most of all for your dedication to your family. You are someone who we all love and will be missed dearly, however, we will forever keep you close through the wonderful memories my dear brother. My deepest and sincerest condolences to the Lalonde family my sister Laci and nephew Andrew. May the peace of God continue to embrace keep us through this difficult time.
With love,

“ Uncle Dave you will be forever missed. You always made me smile and laugh and were such a joy to be around. My favorite memory was growing up you would always tell me I had a squirrel under my arm to trick me and then you would tickle me. I loved getting to go stay the night at your house. You guys always spoiled me! You will be forever missed. Heaven gained another angel. love you Uncle Dave!

“ My deepest condolence to the LaLonde family. It seems hard to believe that Dave has transitioned so soon. I am truly going to miss Dave greatly. He started with me at Magna ten years ago, and we were together to the end I can say now. I'm going to miss our conversations, jokes, and talking about the Magna's memory lane of our work history. Dave was a very dedicated family man and also dedicated to Magna. He has touched many lives in our work place with the funny things he would do. One of Dave's most favorite sayings " that is a operator error". We will miss Dave's humor at Magna. I can personally say Magna will not be the same for me without him. I will continue to pray for the families strength during this time of bereavement. I know that God will never put more on us than we can handle. I loved Dave, but God needed him back. Gone from this earth but forever in our hearts.

Sincerely,

“Dave was a fantastic guy. He had a great sense of humor and was passionate about all things in his life. He taught me a number of things over the few years I worked with him at Magna Mirrors. He was a dedicated worker and he loved his family. A memory I have is that almost every break we shared together, he would call his wife just to check on her. From his stature, you would never believe the kindness and heart that Dave had unless you were lucky enough to have him as part of your life. Though our time was short... He taught me a lot about hard work and about life. You will be missed Dave, and I will keep your family in my prayers - Joshua Buchanan
