“ Louise and Family, we're deeply sadden and yet satisfied that God made the right call Dave when he summoned Dave to heaven to be with him. We know a part of you have also gone to heaven. I shared with Onetra that during our days at The Citadel, I had great admiration for Dave's devotion to and love for you. Please find peace in knowing that Dave will always bewith you and that he left a wonderful lagacy.

“ Dear Rogers' family: I've read all these amazing posts by people who worked with David or learned from him or worshipped with him but I have to say we knew him in a much different way. Jarrett and I met your family when my son was only a toddler at of all places Starbucks! Quickly we became "coffee" friends and we were instantly touched by David and Louise. He was simply an extraordinary husband and father and this I gathered just by our run ins at a coffee shop. Such an attentive and loving spouse and so proud of his children that he just beamed. We always looked for you two and were both thrilled when we would have the blessing of running into you. After he got his motorcycle, Jarrett was so excited about it that David gave him a toy one. Jarrett still has and plays with that toy from Mr. Rogers. I am devastated by the loss for your family. You will be in our prayers. May God give you comfort.##imported-begin##Candace & Jarrett Lindsey##imported-end##

“ Dear Louise and Family,
I received a call from Billy Spearman this morning and he relayed the sad news. I can describe in worlds alone how shocked I am. I know he was a determined and dedicated man in all ways of life. His passion for the path of righteousness was an inspiration for not only The Class of 1977 but for everyone his life touched. I can't fathom the sorrow and loss his family must feel. I will be there Louise, with Billy Spearman, and I will support The Joshua's Way. The last time I was in Greer was at your wedding and you both have always been an inspiration for me and my family. All 3 of my sons are ever at The Citadel or graduated (2010). Yjey have always heard so much of David that they each feel as if they knew "my role model" personally. Jesus will watch over us and give us each the strength to endure this tragedy. In his name, I am at your assistance in any way I can.
Most Humble and Sincerely,

“ Dear Rogers Family,
We were saddened to hear of the news of David. We are praying for you and are confident that God will comfort and help you. The Apostle Paul said "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. “ Dear, dear Rogers: How much we can learn about the disciples after the death of Christ in the death of David: the fears, the uncertainties, the disbelief, the overwhelming sense of loss: I understand their emotions so much more keenly now! To think of the times that I decided to catch "the next" Bible Study at Joshua's Way... so many regrets on my part. I marveled at Lane Black's ability to stand at Lauren's funeral and say, "It is an awesome thing to think that God's plan for Lauren is complete." Our human minds want to argue, "but my plan for David is not complete, God! I need to hear more wisdom, get more inspiration, advice, comfort, etc." I can only know with complete assurance that God would not have taken David if God did not think that His ministries were not able to continue without David. So I can only hear David saying, with great emphasis, and then repeating it, "And now!" because he loved what God said after the "And now's", And now! it is left to those of us still on this earth to pick up the yoke, the cross, and carry forward knowing that only a few were privileged to be tutored, mentored, and prayed for by the David of our times, truly a man after God's own heart.##imported-begin##Leslie Dacus Blackwell##imported-end##

Some of my favorite memories are not of the business discussions we had, but of those discussions after we covered business, discussions about the things of life, theological perspectives, what it means to really make a difference in this world. David had as good a handle on that as any man I know. He honored God in all he did, he walked with integrity, he made this place a better place to live. “ We offer our most profound sympathy and heartfelt prayers to you during this difficult time. David ran the race that was placed before him and he is now at home with his Savior resting in his loving arms. We could never fully express our gratitude to your family for welcoming us as one of your own and consider it an honor and a privilege to have known David. We pray that David's life would serve as a testimony to others so that they may not only know God's teaching but also to put it into practice. Paraphrasing C.S. Lewis: 'And for us this is the end of David's story, but it is only the beginning of the real story. All of David's life had been only the cover and title page. Now at last, David is beginning Chapter One of the Great Story which no one on earth has read: which goes on forever: in which every chapter is better than the one before.' “ I didn't know David Rogers. However, I've come to know his son Caleb very well.

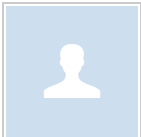

Caleb is universally well-liked. He's hard working, dedicated to both his career and his team, one of the brightest people I've ever met. I'm guessing that at least some of that is due to David Rogers.

So, to David, a posthumous thank-you for giving us a great asset and a wonderful guy in your son Caleb.

And, to the family, you have my sincere condolences. I pray that fond memories and the knowledge of a life eternal will give you comfort in this very difficult time.

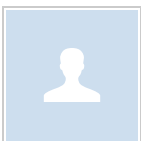

Take care.##imported-begin##Michael A. Keaton##imported-end##

“ Louise, Caleb and Kate,

Having to write this kind of a note to all of you is extremely difficult. Please know how much Wilson and I both wish that we could be there just to cry with you. David knows life in its abundance now. Our prayer would be that the Lord would surround each of you with His comfort, assurance and peace as you walk through these next days. We love you all.

In His Strong Arms,

Wilson and Mary Winn

“ Louise and family-- how deeply saddened we were to hear of David's passing. He was such an integral part of what God is doing in our city, state, nation and world. On a personal note, we will miss him immensely at the Learning Center. Whether it was speaking to our boys, speaking to FCA, or collecting our shoe boxes-that exuberant smile still remained on his face and you knew that you had encountered a man of God who was right in the center of His will. Sorely missed-- but rejoicing that he is in the presence of our Lord. God bless you all, we love you and we are praying for you.##imported-begin##Rob and Jami Crisman##imported-end##

“ Dear Rogers Family,
Words cannot express how sorry I am to hear of the loss of David. Even though this loss is hard for those left behind, we know David is now in heaven and has seen the face of Jesus; something we all desire. We don't always understand why these things happen, but we know this did not take God by surprise. Lean on Christ in this time and know He is not only walking with you, but most importantly He is carrying you in His loving arms. Please know your entire family will be in my prayers today and in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Avery Paris##imported-end##

“ Dearest Louise,

Tim and I have been in absolute shock upon hearing about the sudden news of David. We still cannot believe it. Please know you have been on our mind and hearts constantly and we have been upholding you and your family in prayer.

Although there are no words to describe our sorrow, we know that the Lord is his infinite wisdom has allowed this to happen and for a reason which allows His kingdom to move forward.

May you be comforted and encouraged greatly by family, friends and the Lord himself during this time.

Romans 8:38-39

“For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

Much love with Prayer,

“ Louise, Caleb, Kate and family,

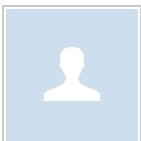

David's words of wisdom on God's sovereignty changed my life, and I am replaying what he shared, humbly trying to reconcile your loss. Being led through Experiencing God by him was a spiritual highlight of my life; he made his time count... Louise, I love you more than you can imagine. The Bradhams are praying for you and yours, trusting God's grace to be sufficient for you during such heartbreak. Thank you for sharing David with us; we are blessed to have shared his time on Earth. We love you, The Bradhams

May God wrap you in His loving arms and bring you the comfort only He can. My prayers and thoughts are with all of you.
