We were so sorry to learn of Debbie's death. So much heartache in a short time. You are in our prayers daily. We probably would have tried to come to the funeral but Kimberly's wedding was Saturday. Just know we are lifting you up continually and praying God will comfort your hearts as only He can.

“ Debbie was one of the most precious friend and human being that God let grace this earth! She was one of those that was so special, that you don't meet but a few like her! She had and will always have a special place in my heart. I loved her so much! Ronnie, Allie, and all family, you are in my prayers and I can't express how sorry I am for you're loss! The world lost a true saint but heaven gained and shouted with joy when she arrived! I am so thankful I got to be her friend in the years I knew her! I will keep you in my prayers in the days ahead! Love you all so much!! Angie Patterson & Steve Chastain

“ Debbie was one of the kindest souls I know! A truly amazing woman! The Rollins were some of the first people my husband & I met when we moved here 17 years ago, always so generous, they brought us vegetables from the garden, deep fried Turkeys, and homemade breads. She always loved the children and would say please bring them babies by the house! She will be sorely missed, but I find comfort in knowing she is with Ike! May God keep his dear sweet angel in his comfort! Debbie Crown

“ Debbie was the kindest of souls...I know God has placed her in a special seat right next to Him along with her son Isaac. There is no doubt she will be missed greatly on this earth, but Heaven is celebrating her arrival. All of her friends at Tower Timber Industries LLC...and "Uncle Jack" will forever miss her kindness and heartwarming welcoming smile she always had - despite whatever great pain she may have been feeling inside of her.
