“ Brue, We are sorry that we didn't have more time with you and Dee. She was a caring wife and mother. Your Aunt Sadie enjoyed the time you all spent with her. As you go into the next weeks and months keep in touch with those who care, especially family. Love, Louise##imported-begin##Louise Ross Betcher-Oldham##imported-end##

“ Bruce - It is with deepest sympathy that we send you this note. Dee was a wonderful, kind and caring lady. She made us laugh on more than one occasion and, yes, we, too were the recipients of the famous "duffus" remark! Dee's devotion to her family was evident in every conversation - her love for her grandchildren and the newest - great grandchild was so very obvious. We were both honored to have known her - especially working with her for so many years at Rocking Horse and then here at Sonshine. She touched so many lives and we will all feel the void of her absence. God's grace is all sufficient, Bruce. Rely on Him for your every need... He will supply it, according to His glorious riches. You are loved and we will continue to pray for you in the days, weeks and months to come. May God's peace fill your heart and home. “ Bruce, My thoughts and prayers will continue to be with you & your family Rely on God for your strength & wisdom my friend I give you this one thought to keep -
I am with you still - I do not sleep.

*I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.*

*When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift, uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight
I am the soft stars that shine at night.*

*Do not think of me as gone-
I am with you still - in each new dawn*

May God Bless & Keep You

“ Bruce & Family,

My thoughts and prayers will continue to be with you now and in the months to come. Rely on God for your strength, peace and comfort and He will help you through this very difficult time.

Bruce - I am here beside you and want you to know that I will sit & talk with you anytime you want (or just sit with you). I would love to grill out in the coming months and maybe, I can occasionally throw out some sassy and witty comments like Dee. The two of you were beautiful together and I so loved to watch your interaction out back. It would always put a smile on my face. You are very fortunate to have experienced what we all wish for ourselves one day. Treasure those memories and share them with all.

Your friend and neighbor ~Melinda

Here is a poem I wanted to share...

*When we lose someone we love
The loss seems too great to bear
God sends us friends to comfort us
To show that He deeply cares*

*But in the dark hours of the night
When there's nobody else around
When we feel the saddest and loneliest
It's there God's love can be found*

*It's like a soothing, healing balm
To soothe our broken hearts
The healing oil poured over us
That flows into every part*

We can rest secure in God's love

*And know He's by our side
He holds us when we feel as though
A part of us has died*

*We can know that God will listen
When we just want to talk
And when we feel we need to cry
We can share it with the Lord*

*For He is always waiting there
Ready with arms open wide
As we pour out the hurt within
He pours His love inside*

*Our Father above loves us so much
And will never leave us alone
He will not forsake us in our need
To face this on our own*

*He comforts us and strengthens us
And rubs us with His balm
And as the dawn breaks through the night
We'll awake in His loving arms.##imported-begin##Melinda

“ Dear "Dusty"

I am extremely sorry that due to numerous health issues I am unable to attend the service for Delores. What a tragic way to lose one's soul-mate. I grieve with you and for you. I can assure you of my prayers for your future comfort and healing. I still remember when you visited me in the hospital during my first heart attack. Your Good Friend & former Charlotte neighbor.
