“ Dennis was my brother-in-law but more importantly he was a brother in Christ. I always enjoyed his company at the many family gatherings over the years. He always had something interesting to say or going on. My many memories of him will always be cherished. I will miss him greatly.

“ I will never forget our family's many New Year's Eve celebrations at my mom's. The best part of the evening every year was charades because Dennis's miming was always hilarious. I've never laughed so much—and probably never will again. I loved Dennis's sense of fun, his wit, his unabashed silliness—how he embraced any crazy idea the group came up with. I adored him—always will. I know his light will shine on forever in my life and in the lives of so many others.

So, so many memories. Charades was always so much fun. The train trip and the train food. Blessed to have spent these good times together with my family.
