“ Melissa, Alan and I were so privileged to know this man of God. He gave of himself for others. Will never forget the time David got hurt and Derrick picked him up like a feather and carried him out to our car. He was a real warrior for Christ! My heart goes out to you all as you walk through this valley... God is with you.... he will never leave you.....you are loved!

“ We will forever be grateful that God brought our families together. You were closer than a brother, Derrick. Thank you for all of your generosity over the years. To give up your birthday to drive our daughter to Charleston for her transplant and time with family on Christmas Eve to bring her back home will always be remembered and celebrated.
