“ Clara, and Buddy,

I cannot imagine the terrible grief you now experience. I do know your faith in God is strong and steadfast.

When our lives are shattered, we turn to the great Potter of our soul. He, and he alone, is able to remake us, yet another vessel from our wounded and shattered clay.

Please know you are dearly loved. You are in our prayers.

“ Deryl was such an awesome, loving, and caring friend. I was at church when I found out of his passing I couldn't believe he was gone. We have been friends for a very long time. I will never forget my trip to Myrtle beach awhile back this man started talking to me. He had long hair and was wearing glasses I didn't know it was Deryl that I was talking to then I figured it out and everyone busted out laughing. I never forgot that one memory of him. We had a lot of memories I will cherish forever. Fly high in heaven my friend I will see you again one day and we will ride and dance western dances.
