“ My cousin Diane.....I spent many weekends at my Aunt Lena's in Hackettstown when I was a young teenager. Diane and I hung out together like big sister, little sister. I remember walking up town to the bakery for jelly doughnuts and guys would whistle at her and tried to talk to her. She would say " my mother told me never to talk to strangers". Diane tried to teach me to swim at Saxton Falls by taking me to the dock and leaving me there. I still don't know how to swim! I only wish I could have spent more time with her in our senior years. Rest in peace Diane, Love you!
