Mimi, its rose bud. I just want to say youre the most missed woman on earth. I wish everyday i could come over and sit outside while we watch the girls play. I wish they could have gotten to meet you and grown to love you just like i do. I love you mimi. I wish heaven had visiting hours or at least a phone so i could call you. I think about you every day. Everytime i see a red bird i think of you. Your my angel. Love rosebud.

“ *Mama,
I've waited to write you this, the last three days have been really hard. I want you to know that Dad, Gregg, and I took great care of you. You looked so beautiful and at peace. I hope that you liked your cross of lilies and hydrangeas and were pleased with the service. I hope that you know that I love you with all my heart and that I'm so proud to call you my Mama. Thank you for giving me a good childhood. I wish that my tears could really build a stairway to heaven like in the poem Patti read because I would try to bring you back to me. I know that I won't see you in the flesh but you will always be in my heart and my soul. Thank you Mom for giving me life on April 10, 1972. Thanks for always sticking with me through thick and thin and all the chaos that I caused. You never stopped loving me and I'll never stop loving you. Don't worry because I'll watch over Dad and Gregg. I know that you are my angel now. I'll love you forever and always.*

*Love,
Your Blue-Eyed Angel Benji*

“ *Mrs. Pace and family, I am sorry to hear of the passing of your daughter and loved one. I know she was fighting last week when you were in the office and I hated to see the pain you were experiencing at that time. May you draw strength, comfort, and peace in God's mercy, grace and love. You are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

Six years. I feel as though I'm wandering around in the desert waiting for the day we meet again. Not one day goes by that you aren't in my thoughts. How could you not be on my mind, we're two sides of the same coin. I gave up hoping I'd wake up from the nightmare, now I stumble through the days as fast as I can, anxiously waiting and watching for you.

“ What a wonderful lady and a great friend. Renee and I send our condolences and offer up thoughts and prayers for all of you. Me, Renee, Larry, and Dianne had a lot of good times together. We were there for each other during the lean times. I'll never forget her making mac and cheese for me. I know there was joy in heaven when the gates opened and she went in. We will miss you, sweet lady..... Mike and Renee

“ "Love me tender, love me true, never let me go. For my darling sister, I love you and I always will!" (Great childhood memories!) You were not just my beloved sister, but my treasured friend, my champion always and my protective second mother! Our bond was magical, spiritual, and beautiful and will be always! A hole opened in my universe, when you left this earthly realm, but you will always be a part of me, until we meet on that heavenly shore! You will be so sorely missed and totally irreplaceable! Always know that you left this world a better place for having been in it! Dance and sing and celebrate with our precious Jordan! I love you to the moon and back, forever, your sister, Maggie Faye aka ("sweetpea") I'll be looking for our redbirds and other special visits from you! And one more thing our darling, sister, knock it out of the park---decorating your mansion! Forever, Maggie Faye
