“ Connie and I have known Dick and his late wife, Audrey, for many years through BJU as well as at Faith Baptist Church. Dick was a man with a quick smile, twinkle in his eyes, and a heart for the Lord. He loved his family intensely and was a proud U.S. Air Force veteran who served with distinction. It was a real pleasure to count him as a friend.

“ Its probably been thirty years since I've seen Dick. It goes all the way back to Southside Baptist Church and Southside Christian School. I remember Dick, his wife and children as a faithful family. The kind of folks you would want to have as your neighbor. Dick was always energetic and very thoughtful. I do believe that we had some good conversations. My condolences to the boys and Amy. I know your dad is missed by you and the entire Faith Baptist community. Larry Wood
