“ Darrell, Zachary, and Adam,
Our thoughts and prayers are with you now. We will be thinking of you and praying for strength for you in the days to come. Please know that we are just a phone call away. Even though the miles may separate us, our family bond makes those miles trivial.

“ Darrell & Donnie, Don & Mary Fisher were two of the most wonderful Christian people I have known. I remember well how lovingly he took care of her when she was sick. I thank God for allowing me to be neighbors with them all those years. You are truly Blessed to have had them as your parents and I am so happy that your children at lease got to know him. I know his family will miss him much but you have such wonderful memories. “ To Aunt Emma and the Fisher Family:

I am sorry to hear of Don's passing. Our Lord's marvelous plan is sometimes hard to comprehend but Don was a man of the utmost character and integrity and we can all take comfort in knowing that He is walking with Jesus this very day in Heaven as he did here on Earth.

May God bless and comfort and keep you all.

Most sincerely and with highest regards,
