“ Dear Tracie and family,
So sorry to hear of your dad's passing. It seems like just yesterday we were attending church at Faith Temple together. Sweet memories and yes, sometimes too many giggles (mostly me) when we were supposed to be listening to the sermon. Please give your mom a hug for me.
Love and Prayers,

“ Jean and family: Kristi and I were deeply saddened to hear of Don's passing, as our family has similarly walked the journey of the loss of a beloved husband and father. We think about the children and grandchildren too, and trust that God's peace will surround all of you in this season. Please rest assured of our prayers and love -- Lori &

So sorry to be late in learning of Don's passing. He was a licensed broker with this firm since 1986. He cared deeply for his clients, and they trusted him implicitly. We hiked together in Arkansas and attended college football games, the teams didn't matter. He drove 3 1/2 hours to my marriage then turned around and drove back to Shreveport 3 1/2 hours. This world is a lot less without Donald H. Wilbanks. Rest in Peace. You have earned it.
