“ I knew Don, for just a few years, and he always greeted me with " It was good that you got to see me". Well that is a very true statement, because it was always good to talk with Don about life in general and how we are guided by The Lord. He was never negative, always cheerful. He will be missed, but he is in good hands now.

I was a classmate with Don at BJU. Didn't know him really well, but the times we interacted were good. So glad that he is with the Lord whom he served so faithfully.

God be with you, Nancy, and your family at this time. Don was a challenging preacher. He loved his Lord and telling others about Him. Love and prayers, Carolyn Simpson
