“ Mom, I can't believe you won't be here every day as I walk in the door. I can still hear you call my name. When you were able to, I know it gave you so much joy to help others, especially children and the elderly. You loved to talk to people and make them smile. I made a donation to St. Jude in your memory. You always told me how much you wish you could do for the sick children. The children in your family brought you great joy. I will always remember you for that. Thank you for everything you have done for me. I will see you again one day. Until then I will hold onto the memories.
Love, your daughter.
