“ Donna was my neighbor for many years in Westchester in Easley. She was a sweet and loving friend to me and we both shared a love for plants. She would split her flowers and bring them to me. One day, by the Koi pond out back she had brought me a little frog with a fishing pole. She was so thoughtful like that and so funny. I always knew that Donna loved me and I loved her, it was just a given. She was a good and loving soul and I know she will be happy to be whole and surrounded by all her loved ones in heaven.

Condolences to her family and Chris, Prayers to all the family. Love, Angie##imported-begin##Angie Evon##imported-end##
