“ Dear Joey and the Dill Family:
Bill and I are so sad to learn of the loss of your father. We only knew him briefly but we were touched by his helpfulness and his genuine love for his family. He and I were able to have a conversation about his illness and his hope for the future which he did express to me. We never know the paths that we cross and the people we meet and can only hope that we can touch someone else in a special way. I thank you and your father for that opportunity.
