

Doris J. Bagwell

August 4, 1938 - July 26, 2024

Doris Jean Bryer Bagwell, 85, wife of the late Ronald Eugene Bagwell, passed away July 26, 2024.

A native of Dayton, Ohio, daughter of the late Robert and Ellen Crisler Bryer, she was a member of Taylors Church of Christ.

Surviving are one son, Mark Bagwell of Atlanta, Georgia; five grandchildren, Jake, Bailey, Charlee, Brittany, and Bryer; and five great-grandchildren, Maddie, Izzy, James, Sullivan, and Ellie.

Mrs. Bagwell was predeceased by one son, Kevin Bagwell and one brother, Roland Bryer.

The family will be at their respective homes.

Online condolences may be made to www.thewoodmortuary.com.

Tribute Wall

GN

“Doris and her family became close friends in 1969 when we both moved to Greenville. We both attended Northeast Church of Christ where we met and worked together in that congregation while we raised our families. Our families have been closely entwined since then and we shared many good times together. Although we both attend different congregations now, we became very close again after the passing of Ronald, and remained close until her passing. She will be missed!

Ginny Norwood - July 29, 2024 at 02:45 PM

SR

“Mark, your mom and dad lived across the street from us when we moved there in 1987. We became friends. She will be very missed. “My prayers are with you and the family”
Sandra Reece

Sandra Reece - July 27, 2024 at 04:16 PM

CS

“Such a sweet neighbor. Appreciate the time I was able to spend with her.
Cindy Stone

Cynthia Stone - July 27, 2024 at 02:34 PM