“ It is Monday May 9th , it has been six days since you went to be with our Lord in heaven . I want to tell Keith , Sylvia , Margie and Chad , I miss her so much , but I know she is so happy now singing and shouting in heaven with Mama and Daddy and all our loved one that have gone on before . People say time heals , but believe me it does not , I miss Mama and Daddy and all my brothers and sisters and Ken more today than yesterday . No one can ever take the place of Mama , Doris was so much like mama to me , she was so loving and caring to everyone , she always worried about all of her children she loved you unconditionally .I am so happy she is not suffering anymore .Love Marilyn Wilson

“ My heart is heavy today after hearing of Doris's passing. I remember when Tony and I lived next door from her with Sue after we were married. I always loved being around Doris. She was always kind and goodhearted. She was a joy to be around. She had this great sense of humor that automatically made you feel better. I haven't seen Doris in many years but have thought of her now and then. She was a sweet lady. I will always have good memories of her. I know she will be missed by many. Rest in peace sweet Doris.
