“ Dear Mr. Sudduth, Billy, Vanoy, Mark, and your respective families, I am so sad to hear of Mrs. Sudduth's passing. Many of my childhood memories involve Mrs. Doris: running through her backdoor when I was a little girl to get a drink of water; sitting at her kitchen table as she taught me how to decorate a cake; and when I was a teenager, coming over once a week to fix her hair, using those spiky gray rollers. She was always so kind, always gentle, a sweet friend. I know your loss is difficult, but her pain is over. I know in my heart she is singing in heaven. Although I am out of town the remainder of the week, please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you as you go through this heart-breaking time. Love, Denise##imported-begin##Denise Green McWhorter##imported-end##
