

Doris A. Ussery

June 5, 1932 - October 25, 2017

Doris Alexander Ussery died October 25, 2017 at her residence, Haywood Estates in Greenville, SC.

She was predeceased by Ira, her husband of 63 years, in 2015. Born to Bud and Ruth Alexander on June 5, 1932 in Mooresville, NC, she graduated from high school there. She was a graduate of Western Carolina University and had several careers over the years: English teacher, librarian, church secretary, wife and mother.

A member of Unity Presbyterian Church in Fort Mill, SC, she taught adult Sunday school for 20 years and served as deacon, elder and on many committees.

Reading, playing bridge, scrabble and trivia were some of her favorite past times; time with family and friends are what she treasured most.

Doris is survived by daughter Amy, son-in-law Jody, grandchildren Chase, Dylan and Catherine, sisters-in-law, Edith Farmer (Don), Sara Childers and Carolyn Ussery, life-long friends Barbara and Roy Church and family, my extended family at Unity and Haywood.

A memorial service will be held 4:00 p.m. Monday, October 30, 2017 at The Wood Mortuary, conducted by Dr. Dan Holloway.

The family is at the home of her daughter.

Memorials may be made to Unity Presbyterian Church, 303 Tom Hall St., Fort Mill, SC 29715.
