“ The passing of Aunt Dorris is a tremendous loss to all of us, yet brings to mind so many memorable moments. She was unique and forthright in her ways and taught us so much about family history. What a wonderful spirit she had....one that I will miss the most. My condolences to the Bellinger Family and all who knew her.

“ *I saw Dorris when I regularly visited Margie Thomas, my mother-in-law, at Bayberry Retirement Inn. I last saw Dorris on Friday, May 15, when I sat at the table with them for supper. Dorris was a very sweet and friendly lady. We will miss her!

“ Dear Aunt Doris, what a huge void your passing has created in our lives and our hearts. You were our anchor and rock to the greatest generation and you were the last one and now you're gone. Your likeness to my mother has been such a inspiration all these years. Your legacy of volumes of scrap books, photo albums and family tree history are a treasure just beyond description. Oh my God how you are going to be missed.

*My family, the family of James Adair (Bud) Auchmuty, had wondered about Dorris and was she still alive. We googled her name and found that she had passed away last year. We are saddened.....Dorris's father and our father were brothers. Dorris kept all the Auchmuty families informed of our heritage and she LOVED doing it. She was such a lady and had the most wit.....She and our mother, Amelia, both were letter writers and always kept in touch. She was a great daughter, wife, mother, grandmother and cousin. She will be missed.
Love, Rev. James (Jim) Auchmuty, June Auchmuty Motley and Jane Auchmuty Johnston.*
