“ I had the pleasure of working with Doyle at Lyman and he was the true Southern Gentleman.

He was very knowledgeable of the Art of sheet making and had a real feel for people and how to treat them!

I place him at the top of the many that I worked with over my career in textiles!

Our prayers are with his family!

“ While I served as pastor of Washington Baptist Church, Doyle was a constant encouragement to my wife Kathy and me. I remember him as a gentle and humble man who loved the Lord Jesus Christ. When we were called as missionaries to Venezuela, Doyle and Frances presented us with sheets, towels and wash cloths from his business, prayed for us daily, and stayed in touch with us while we served overseas. Kathy and I look forward to our reunion one day in heaven with Doyle and Frances.
