“ Duane was married to my cousin, Barbara. Duane always referred to me as his “kissin’ cousin. He was a good guy, a hard worker and a loving husband. He was a man of God. My prayers are for his family. He will be missed 🙏

Duane was a good friend, a fine Christian man and had a loving heart for those in need. I talked with him on Tuesday evening and his concern was for a lady friend who was in need and who he was trying to help. Duane had a heart of gold and we are definitely going to miss him and his Christian influence.

Duane my cousin and I shared many phones calls for well more than an hour. I got to know Duane as we hadn't seen each other since our childhood. I was able to know Barb before she went home to Jesus and we shared many moments he had with his daughters and grandkids and how much he loved them. He loved Jesus so much and is with him now.
