“ I was so sorry to hear of Earl's passing, I have many memories of him calling on my granfathers drug store (Frierson's). I also had the opportunity to work on his cars when I worked for Mike Stewart Garage. I also really appreciated his and Carm's work on the Greer Museum. My thoughts and prayers are with all your family, Chris Harvey##imported-begin##Chris Harvey##imported-end##

“ I was deeply saddened when I heard of Earl's passing, but then I started to remember the really good moments I shared with him. He and Carm lived next door to my parents and he was the father-in-law of my sister, Melissa. I had many backyard and basement shop talks with Earl over the years, the subjects of which ranged from politics, to religion, to the changes in Greer I'd see when I'd come home. More than once, when I'd bring my family back home to Greer to visit, someone would have to come from my parent's house to drag me away from one of these impromptu chats for dinner. Earl was a mentor and a friend to me, and his faith and modesty were an inspiration. I will miss him very much. My condolences to his family, whom I'm sure, will miss him even more. They can surely take comfort in knowing what a fine man he was and the positive impact he had on so many others's lives.##imported-begin##Harold Riordan##imported-end##
