“ With a heavy heart I say farewell to my Uncle Earl. I always loved his dry and witty sense of humor. No one could make me laugh like he could. A wonderful and caring man he was and I send heartfelt prayers of comfort to Mike, Debbie and Pat as well as Mutt for the loss of such a sweet, gentle man. He will be sorely missed.

“ Mr Earl was always more than a neighbor to our family. Everytime that we went fishing we always brought the fish home for Mr Earl to eat and today Mr Earl is eating fish at that Heavenly Table with his Lord and Savior. He has fought a good fight and finished his race and how he resides in Heaven where he received his ultimate healing... RIP Mr Earl we will remember all the good time and we will miss seeing you on the porch as we passed... Until we meet again this is see you later.
