“ Pam and Chris, I'm saddened to hear about Ed's passing. I can remember tutoring sessions with the boys and Ed would be as encouraging, and kind as only he could be. I have imagined as I pass that small nook on the growing side of town, how much the small things meant so much especially during that time in my life. I am grateful for the friendship your family extended to me and mine. May you feel Gods peace, love and mercy during this difficult time. I will keep you in my prayers.
