“ Sarrell, though our times together have been infrequent for the last forty years or so, the times we worshiped and worked together started a friendship and fellowship that has endured and has been treasured. And though our pilgrimage took different paths, they are leading to our eternal home where together again we will worship and serve our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ in the new heavens and new earth. Your faithfulness has provided inspiration and definition to the meaning of faith in our LORD's presence with us.

Presence

Life, when sifted down to its essence

Consist primarily of enjoying the Presence.

Thus through the valley we walk with confidence

We are being guided by a gracious Providence.

In this we live and move and have our being,

Walking in faith, meaning of "all things" not seeing.

Yet believing it is for good that we suffer loss,

Like Jesus, who for the joy to come endured the cross. JRH

“ Sorrell, I will miss our weekly phone calls, the teasing and many laughs we had together to remember. You were an awesome warrior for Jesus. I can see the two of you walking hand in hand down that street of Gold. Will be joining you one day sooner than later. David and Cheryl Lunn,

“ Papa Sal I am going to miss you so much. You were a wonderful Christian man, neighbor and friend. It is so hard opening my door knowing you are not there. I loved our talks we had and also the love and support you gave me.

Snow Street Place will never be the same. We will miss your prayers at every meal, your walks in the halls, and your beautiful smile and laugh. I know that you are now walking streets of gold with Jesus and you are once again with your wife and son. I look forward to seeing you again in heaven. I want to live in the mansion across the street from you so we can be eternal neighbors!

Love you always,

“ Sarrell, your positive effect on my life through the years is a gift from God! Although we were not related, I could not have asked for a better "Uncle". As I grew into adulthood, your Christian example was truly a path worthy of being followed.

It was both an honor and a privilege to bring you to Coffee Spot most every Monday night these last few years. Our Mondays will never be the same!

You will be greatly missed.

Enjoy that Glorified body!

“ What a blessing it was to see Sarrell this last September at Tigerville Baptist Church, after many years of following our Lord down different paths. Sarrell was a spiritual father full of wisdom and kindness. I did so love his walk and fatherly guidance.

Rhonda I do so regret that I will miss the chance to see you and all the Strange family, not to mention the service. I have too many responsibilities on Sunday to be able to attend.

For now Sarrell's passing into glory is difficult, more on some than others, (The Lord gives us a time to mourn) but very soon for those in Christ Jesus, it will turn to rejoicing. For all of us called to die to self and made alive in Our Lord Jesus Christ,

He will change our sorrow into rejoicing. After that we will rejoice and praise God together for eternity.

Blessings

“ Oh Papa, it's such a blessing to have known you since you gave your only daughter to my brother Dean. Our family fell in love with your whole family. You were and will always be a pillow of strength in my heart. I'm glad JESUS JIREH took you in your sleep. You uttered your last prayer and you were on your Heavenly way. Family please know that he will be missed so much but his memories and stories will always remain. I come to the Garden alone, while the dew is still on the Roses A the voice you heard that drew closer to your ears. Saying Sarrel, you're going home. Peace and love precious Papa Strange

Sarrell is definitely one of the most godly and humble men I've ever known. He was always such an encouragement and inspiration for all of us. His race is run, and he's with His Heavenly Father.
