

Edith Joan Hudgens Giordano

November 30, 1939 - May 30, 2026

Edith Joan Hudgens Giordano, 86, wife of the late Philip Anthony Giordano, passed away May 30, 2026.

A native of Anniston, Alabama, daughter of the late Marvin Milford and Gladys Estelle Bryant Hudgens, she enjoyed gardening, reading, and traveling. Her travels brought her to many places across the globe, some of her favorites being Africa and many countries across Europe.

Surviving are her children, Philip Giordano (Leah) of Greenville, South Carolina and Jeannie Giordano (James) of New York, New York; a brother, Bill Gibson; two sisters, Mary Rolax and Evelyn Kilmartin; and four grandchildren, Christen Schwartz, Chandler Giordano, Gemma Greene, and Astrid Greene. Mrs. Giordano was predeceased by a brother, Jerry Hudgens.

A private service for the family will be held.

Online condolences may be made to www.thewoodmortuary.com.

Tribute Wall

DB

“Mrs. G was my second mother growing up. I've always loved her and the Giordano family. A few years ago I was getting out of the car at my parents house. A car stopped in the grass, it was her getting out. I don't think words were even spoken, but we shared a long hug and she got back in her car. My thoughts are with Phil, Jeannie and the entire family.”

David Bright - June 01 at 02:01 PM

SB

Edie was a very special lady and a wonderful neighbor. Phillip and Jeannie, you are in my prayers

Sandy Bright - June 02 at 08:46 AM