

Edith Hegler Jones

April 27, 1922 - December 3, 2014

Edith Dabney Hegler Jones, 92, formerly of 26 Shadow Lane, widow of Maurice Henton Jones, died December 3, 2014 at Magnolias of Summerville, S.C.

A native of Lancaster County, daughter of Oscar Charles and Bessie Dabney Hegler, she was a retired employee of Young's Jewelers and a member of Taylors First Baptist Church.

Surviving are one daughter, Marcia Brantley (Ron); and one son, Geary Jones (Judy) of Greenville; one sister Sarah McGee of Mount Airy, N.C.; three grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Jones was predeceased by one brother and three sisters.

Graveside services will be held 11:00 a.m. Monday at Taylors First Baptist Church cemetery conducted by Dr. Jimmie Harley.

Visitation will be after the service in the chapel.

The families are at their respective homes.

Memorials may be made to Hospice of Charleston, 4975 LaCross Road, Suite 200, North Charleston, S.C. 29406.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com

Previous Events

Graveside Service

DEC 8. 11:00 AM (ET)

Taylors First Baptist Church Cemetery
200 West Main Street
Taylors, SC 29687

Tribute Wall

JG

“ Our thoughts & prayers are with you & the family. We did not know her, other than when we saw her at Magnolia, but if she was anything like her daughter she was indeed a wonderful person.
Jackie and Donnell

Jackie and Donnell Gibson - December 05, 2014 at 06:58 AM

FS

“ I was so sorry to read of Ms. Edith's passing. She and I used to walk together in our neighborhood and enjoyed many pleasant conversations. I had often wondered where she had moved to and missed our little times together. My thoughts, prayers and sympathy are with each of her family during this sad time.

Frances Southerland - December 04, 2014 at 09:33 AM

GJ

Thank you Mrs. Southerland. Mom went peacefully in her sleep and she did not suffer. Geary

Geary Jones - December 05, 2014 at 09:55 AM

WK

“ Dear Marcia and Geary: Like you, I was "raised" at Taylors First Baptist, so I don't remember a time that I did not know your mom. I always had immense appreciation for her. She was always so kind to me. Moreover, I will always remember her kindness to my mom who died Christmas Eve of `06. When both of them were still in Sunday School together, it was clear that your mom was her best Sunday School friend. With sympathy and best wishes to you ---

Wayne King

Wayne King - December 04, 2014 at 07:47 AM

Thanks for the kind words Wayne. Geary

Geary Jones - December 05, 2014 at 09:39 AM