

Edith Raye Stewart

December 31, 1942 - April 8, 2020

Edith Raye Stewart, 77, passed away peacefully April 8, 2020, at Heartland Health Care Center Greenville West after a brief battle with cancer.

She was the daughter of the late Paul Edwin Stewart and Beatrice Pearson Stewart. Having lived in Mullins, S.C. for 25 years, she retired from the Marion County School District as an administrative assistant. Edith was a member of Mountain View United Methodist Church. Edith was a kind and caring person who will be missed by all who knew her.

She is survived by two sisters, Janette Stewart Thompson (William T.) of Greenville and Yvonne Stewart McKellar of Taylors; sister-in-law, Frances Hawkins Stewart of Greenville; six nieces and nephews, Paul Leonard Stewart, Linda Thompson Boyles, Michelle Stewart Malki, Colleen Thompson Wheeler, Glenn Michael McKellar, and John Charles McKellar.

She was predeceased by two brothers, Gerald Franklin Stewart and Paul Buford Stewart, and one sister, Angeline Stewart Campbell.

Graveside services will be 1:00 p.m. Saturday, April 11, 2020 at Gum Springs Pentecostal Holiness Church Cemetery, conducted by Rev. Carole Walters and Rev. Joel Boyles. The family respectfully requests that those in attendance practice social distancing.

The family is at their respective homes.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Mountain View United Methodist Church, 6525 Mountain View Road, Taylors, S.C. 29687.

“ I remember Edith from when I was a girl. I am older than Edith by 7 yrs., but we lived in the old Stewart hose across the road from the Stewart family. I was Betty Kay Moon. I am sure Edith will be missed. I loved the Stewart family.
