“ Norman,
I was very saddened by Effie's passing. I know that this leaves a heavy and empty place in you heart at this time. Know that you have friends and family that are there for you if you need us and are only a telephone call away.

“ Dearest Effie, You will surely be missed by so many as you had touched so many lives while on this earth. Many admired you for your steadfast family values and always putting everyone else first before yourself. You were very selfless and kind toward others and helped when needed. You will surely be missed for your smile and kindness that everyone always enjoyed as I did. You may not be here with us on this earth but surely God has you by his side to watch down over all of us as you continue your vigilance on all the people that you have loved in your lifetime and you now get to share that love with loved ones that have gone before you and gaze upon them again.
You will be missed always and loved always by Norman and the rest of the family. May you forever be at peace and shine down your sunshine on all of us as we will all meet again one day.
May God bless you always and always.
