“ Mr. House was my friend at the farmers market. He would always share a comic from the newspaper , he was reading. He was so smart and always a joy to see on Saturday mornings, I will miss his dried apples and honey. Rest well my friend.

“ My parents introduced me to Mr. House several years ago at what is now, Phoenix Senior Living. He was an amazing person to talk to. I learned more about bees and all that can be done with honey and it's healing powers. It was an honor to meet him and get to know him.

My family will be remembering your family in our prayers.
