“ I was so sorry to learn today, December 25, of your dear wife's passing away. This was such a shock. I saw you in a side-room at St. Francis Hospital on December 5th. I wish I had been able to stop and talk with you. I'll be remembering you in my prayers as you face the extremely difficult and lonely days ahead. When I can be of help to you, please feel free to call on me. Your wife was such a tremendous help-meet for you. I know you are going to miss her greatly. She was as faithful and loving a wife as one could ever have. You have been richly blessed to have had such a godly helper all of these years. My heart aches for you at your great loss.##imported-begin##Mel & Julie Lacock##imported-end##
