“ At a time like this it is very difficult for family and friends to realize what a blessing they have had to share their lives with someone as special as the loved one that has gone to be with Jesus. "What a day that will be when my Jesus I shall See" But even more wonderful is the promise that someday we will all be together again. The tears we shed are not for her, but for us, because we will miss her so much. It was a pleasure to get to know Eleanor, Judy, Sharon, and Lou. I wish them all a blessed and happy life. I came to love them all in the short time God let me in their lives. May he bless you all. I hope to see you soon.

“ Dearest Cousins,
You have my prayers, as you give Eleanor back to Jesus. Know I will be asking Him for great peace and comfort for you all. Eleanor was such a sweet Christian lady, and will be mourned here, but celebrated in heaven! She and her Mama are reunited with the other relatives there now, and if I know the Reynolds/Hughes/Lunny Clan, it is a loud reunion being held there! May God walk each step with us here on earth until such time as we can join that heavenly crowd! Until then, know I love all of you.
Love & Peace,
Sarah###imported-begin###Sarah Wakefield McIntyre###imported-end##
