“ Our thoughts & prayers are with all of our family at this most difficult time.

Aunt Eleanor was always beautiful & carried herself, as a ‘true lady’ should. There were not many times in our lives we remember her not having her hair ‘just right’, her earrings on, makeup perfect and her lipstick on.

We treasure the memories of when she lived across the street from Momma & Daddy and came over to swing, or just sit in the kitchen to chat.

As we all have grown up, had children & went our separate ways in life, one thing remains ~ we are still family & will always love each other.
