“ Our Dearest Grandmother & Great Grandma,

As we mourn your loss, we are reminded of the wonderful times we enjoyed with you. How we loved every visit with you! How you made me chuckle truly convinced that sweet Finnigan was a little girl, too pretty to be a boy! Watching the boys energy awaken the youth in you. How we all, so very much enjoyed listening to the stories you shared with us reminiscent of such eventful experiences of your life. How you always listened & answered all the questions the boys asked, and never minded the amount of all the questions they poured into you! Such a elegant lady, beaming with the type of eloquence that no longer exists. We miss you so very much & are so very thankful for the time God gave us to share with you. We Love You very much Grandma & Great Grandma! We have peace in your absence only with the help of our God & Savior, remembering these words: "13) But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about those who are asleep, that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. 14) For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep." - 1 Thessalonians 4:13
