“ I came to know Elizabeth only 6-8 years ago as her Sunday School teacher. As it turned out, she became my teacher as I learned so much from her in our visits and chats. At one point I carried my 40 year old son with me to visit Elizabeth because I wanted him to meet someone with her wisdom.

Elizabeth was a diligent student of the Bible. In December 2012 she gifted numerous copies of a Bible she had come to love, the Life Application Bible, to friends. She wrote in front of mine, “On the occasion of Jesus Christ’s Birthday.”

My condolences to the faithful family along with my regrets that I will be out of town during the service and unable to attend.

“ Mrs. Miller taught me my junior and senior years at Greer High School. She was an outstanding teacher and Christian. She was so precious! I will never forget her, she left an everlasting impression on me. I know our Lord has something special for her

“ I have known Mrs Elizabeth only a short time. My granddaughter and I used to chat with her from time to time when we would see her walking in her yard. We live next door. My granddaughter asked about her often and was sad to learn she had passed. She was only 5 years old when she met Mrs Liz. I remember her as a sweet, caring, loving christian neighbor. She always sent us a Christmas card and a gift every Christmas including this last Christmas even though she was no longer living in her home. I prayed for her often and will continue to pray for her family. I know she will be missed. Sandra Cheek and Granddaughter Breasia 8 years old now.....
