*And glory in Thy might ...
Come, meet me in the garden, Lord,
And take me by the hand.
The flowers are blooming all around,
And the trees are tall and grand ...
Come, meet me in the garden, Lord,
Bestow on me Thy love -
Endow me with new hope and peace,
And blessings from above ...*

“ Lib was always so much fun when she joined us for Bunco. Her smile and bubbly laugh lit up the room. We will sure miss her.

“ Beautiful, feisty, funny, loving and honest. I will miss my friend so much. So many memories to treasure. Stories we shared, her love for my dog Dinger who loved her too, decorating her home for the holidays and her porch for spring, joining my granddaughters at the Grandmas Tea at Prince of Peace Catholic School and the Baptism of my youngest grandchild. The kids called her Auntie Lib and loved her so. She will always have a very special place in our hearts. I love and miss you tons my friend, but you are free of pain and once again in the loving arms of Nick. RIP.....till we meet again. 🙏❤️
