“ I was 11-12 years old when I moved to Duncan next door to Ruth and Ray Bragg. They were like my second parents. I stayed at Ruth’s house ALL THE TIME. My own mama had to make me come home every night. When my Mama passed away at 15 yrs old, Ruth and Ray took me in until I permanently moved to my Brother Randy and Brenda’s home where I lived for many years. It was so much fun at Ruth’s. I went with them to the auction sales where I helped sell hotdogs and pimento cheese sandwiches every Friday and Saturday nights. She was my best friend. I took care of Beth and Tommy when they were small and now me and Beth are inseparable as sisters/best friends. I will truly miss Ruth but now she is in Heaven with Ray the love of her life❤️❤️❤️. Rest In Peace Ruth. May God hold you close!
