

Emma Miller

February 1, 1917 - March 14, 2011

Emma Elizabeth Tucker Miller, age 94, passed away March 14, 2011 at The Cottages at Brushy Creek in Greer, SC, where she had been a resident for the past several years.

Emma was born in Berkley, VA and was a graduate of Maury High School. She was preceded in death by her parents, Lawrence H. and Olive V. Tucker; her husband, F.R. "Ducky" Miller, life member of the PGA in the Carolinas and Virginia; a sister, Dorothy T. Marks and her brothers, John R. Tucker and George H. Tucker.

Survivors include a daughter, Carolyn Miller Eisenman and husband, Bobby of Palm Harbor, FL, a son, Lawrence R. Miller and wife, Sherry of Greenville, SC; four grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Our heartfelt thanks and appreciation go out to the doctors, nurses and especially the companions who cared so lovingly for her while she was a resident in Lilac Cottage.

A graveside service will be held at a later date at Forest Lawn Cemetery in Norfolk, VA.

Arrangements are being made by Hollomon-Brown Funeral Home, 8464 Tidewater Drive, Norfolk, Virginia 23518.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to St. Anne's Episcopal Church, 711 Henderson Drive, Jacksonville, NC 28540 in memory of Emma E. Miller.

“ Carol and Family; I worked for your mom at the Country Club on the Eastern Shore of Virginia. I haven't seen her in a long time, but I will always remember her. She was very nice and I enjoyed all of our long talks. You have my sincere condolences and I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Rosemary Hill##imported-end##

“ To Emma's family,
We were neighbors of Emma and Ducky when they lived in the apartments in Onancock. What warm, caring and fun folks they were. I remember Emma being one of the "Murphy Girls" at Holy Trinity and her wonderful cooking as well. Please accept our heartfelt sympathy.##imported-begin##Joan and Cliff Murden##imported-end##
