AN

I was a friend of Frank's on Facebook. I had not heard from him in a while but didn't know he had passed away. He was a good friend to me and we often talked about meeting in Greenville over coffee. He seemed to enjoy life to the fullest... always charming, happy and fun to talk to. I prayed God would heal him every day. I sure will miss him for someone I'd never got to meet in person and I really regret that.
