“ I had the distinct privilege of sharing so many moments of joy with Eric through our work together, charitable endeavors and most enjoyable, our personal friendship. Eric was a man of his word, a man dedicated to his family and a friend to anyone he encountered. I will miss him but know his family will celebrate his life for the rest of theirs. His son will carry with him the legacy of his dad's zest for life, service to others and magnetic enthusiasm.

I will never forget him, especially when watching a Clemson game!

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I worked closely with Eric at Real Deal the last three years. During that time I saw first hand that Eric was loved by many and he was a loyal friend to those who knew him. I am thankful that I got to know him and called him a friend. My thoughts are with the family and his little boy.

Dear Johnny and Doris Ann, We are so sorry to learn about Eric's passing. We can only imagine what it would be like to lose a child. We will be praying for you as you adjust to this change in your life. Deepest Sympathy, Richard and Wanda Vaughn

Wade family, I was saddened to hear of Eric's passing. I was unable to come to the services because I was out of town. Eric came by the ice cream parlor sometime this summer and I was not there. I got the note later and laid it aside and misplaced it. I have been kicking myself since learning of his death. I regret that I didn't call him. We had lost contact a number of years back. I have many good memories from when Eric worked for me as a teenager at the peach orchard. I will always remember us ordering 50 tickets to the Orange Bowl before Clemson was even invited. We sat together for that national championship game back in 1981. Eric was a fine person back then and I am sure he was later in life. You will be in our prayers.
