“ Eric was a great hearted guy who reminded me of both of my brothers in many ways. We worked together at Fluidair for 6 years in Greenville and also hung out together outside of work many times. After I moved to Charleston in 2010, he came down and stayed with me and drew an awesome picture of a multi-colored fish that I still have hanging on my wall, even after I moved to another house. I attached a photo of it. He had much love for his kids for sure. Amazing artist and guitar player.
