“ Uncle EJ was always smiling and boy, did had the stories to tell! He will be missed by our family and by many in the community. He was blessed with the gift of gab and had made many, many friends throughout his life. I am certain that he’s chatting it up with his old pals that have passed before him in the Heavens today. Thoughts and prayers for our family to find peace and comfort in the days to come.

“ EJ was a character, he and my dad sat at Hardee's many a morning going back and forth at one another in good humor. Now they can banter in heaven. Hardee's will never be the same. Rest in peace EJ.

“ There is no greater loss than to lose your best friend, hero, and Father. Daddy was larger than life to me and I thought he was immortal. I know right now He is happy because he does not need a walking stick anymore, he doesn't have to have a breathing machine anymore. He is finally whole again. I stood by his side through thick and thin and better or worse. I tried to protect him from the evils of the world and tried so hard to keep him in good health. But Gods will shall be done and it was time for his suffering on earth to end. Fly High Pops and I will see you on the other side.
