“ Dear Carolyn,

I noticed that your Mom Eunice had passed away this past week, while I was visiting my Aunt Lou's obituary.

Bless you as you go through the loss and acceptance of her going.

I remember her very fondly as she made sure we were ready for our 1965 prom Carolyn, and took our pictures by the 55 Chevy. Also, sitting with you at church, and as high school friend.

I remember her great attitude and kindness from long ago.

May Jesus Christ grant you peace at this difficult time. Good luck to you and Dennis as you carry on your ministry, and I also saw you all did the service for her.

*Sincerely,

“ I have a lovely picture of Eunice, on Mondays, when I delivered her Meals on Wheels.
She was always happy, and we always talked about her flowers.
She said she wished she could work in the flower beds, but her Dr. said she had to stop.
I will miss her stories, and Smiles. Condolences to family.
