

Evelyn Goodwin

February 2, 1920 - November 9, 2012

Evelyn Gosnell Goodwin, widow of Henry Haskell (Hack) Goodwin, passed away on Friday, November 9, 2012.

Born in Greenville, SC on February 2, 1920, she was the daughter of the late Easter and Harry Gosnell. She was raised in the Camperdown community and attended Greenville Sr. High School. She married Hack, the love of her life, just prior to his tour of duty in the Army Air Corps in WWII. She worked at Camperdown Mill prior to its closing and then went to J. P. Stevens, Dunear Mill in the Cloth Room, where she retired as a head grader.

She was an active member of Overbrook Baptist Church, serving as a Sunday School teacher and choir member, until her body was ravaged by Alzheimer's disease. She was a long-time volunteer at the Greenville Baptist Association Crisis Center. She and Hack loved participating in the Silver Threads at Overbrook and traveling to many of the 50 states and Canada. They were both accomplished ballroom dancers. She was preceded in death by two brothers, Lewis Gosnell and Bill Gosnell.

She loved her Clemson Tigers and was ever so proud that her son, both grandsons and granddaughter-in-law graduated from Clemson University. She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Dan and Judy Goodwin, of Simpsonville; two grandsons and their wives, Patrick James (P.J.) and Holly Goodwin of Simpsonville; Travis Lee and Melissa Goodwin of Greenville; and two grandchildren, Patrick and Audrey Goodwin.

A celebration of life memorial service will be held at Overbrook Baptist Church, 1705 E. North Street, Greenville, SC 29607 on Tuesday, November 13, at 2:00 p.m., officiated by Rev. Dale Sutton. Private family burial.

“His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.” Matthew 25:21.

Memorials may be made to Overbrook Baptist Church, 1705 East North Street, Greenville, S.C. 29615.

“ Dan, Judy, and family, Walt and I send our love and deepest sympathy in the loss of your mother. To know that she is in the arms of our Lord and knows no further pain in any way but only the joys of being whole and living in Heaven must bring you much comfort even as you grieve the loss of her physical presence on Earth. Prayers and blessings during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Linda & Walt Lowry##imported-end##
